

“Hindi Pakhwada” Celebration in ICAR-DFR

ICAR-DFR celebrated “Hindi Pakhwada” from 14th September, 2020 to 29th September, 2020. Different competitions like Essay, Word writing related to flowers, Poem Recitation and Rangoli Programme based on different themes were organized in which all the scientific, administrative, temporary staff of ICAR-DFR, Pune participated. Owing to the ongoing pandemic situation, all programmes were organized through the online mode. The motto of the programmes organized was to celebrate, the importance of Hindi language along with creating awareness about its usage in daily life. The pandemic has not deterred us from holding the Hindi Pakhwada and the Directorate has organized Hindi Pakhwada and all the staff have actively participated in various competitions through the online mode. At the end of the day on 30th September we celebrated “Hindi Pakhwada Samapan Samaroh”. Dr. S. D. Sawant, honourable Vice Chancellor of Dr. B.S.K.K.V. Dapoli, was the chief guest of that programme. The programme started with a brief introduction of “Hindi Diwas” and Dr. K. V. Prasad, Director welcomed our chief guest Dr. S. D. Sawant. Speaking on the occasion of the closing ceremony of the program, Dr. S. D. Sawant, honourable Vice Chancellor of Dr. B.S.K.K.V. Dapoli, said “Hindi is one language which can be spoken across the country” and he also emphasized the importance of hindi and encouraged the staff to use more and more hindi in our official works as hindi is the simplest language. Dr. S. D. Sawant, honourable Vice Chancellor of Dr. B.S.K.K.V. Dapoli, congratulated all the winners of the various competitions. The winners of the competitions were awarded with cash prizes and certificate of participation.
